Hi Jay, Sharon, Issa & Frank,

I know you meant to leave me a cookie and milk ... so much to do, so little time ... so I just helped myself.

I'm a little pissed that you forgot, but rather than leave you coal for your stockings - I noticed you didn't put out stockings for me to leave the coal in - I am just going to leave you bupkis.

See you next year.

Your pal,

S.

PS: It's really much more pleasant since we moved to CA. The elves don't have to shovel nearly as much snow, and there are way more Starbucks® than at the N.P.
